

Pray As One- Matthew 18:18-19

That means that we should pray that:

- 1) Pres. Donald Trump will continue to surround himself with solid men like Mike Pence, his Vice President.
- 2) he will listen to the godly leaders who have been speaking into his life, like James Robison and Tony Perkins;
- 3) he will humble himself, recognizing that the pride that has brought him this far is the pride that could destroy him;
- 4) he will walk in a spirit of forgiveness and not revenge.

Pray for the spirit of righteousness:

- 5) he will keep his word about the Supreme Court justices he will nominate;
- 6) he will not compromise the Republican Platform in some misguided effort to prove his moderation;
- 7) he will do his best not to alienate those who are horrified by his presidency, instead pledging to be the president of all Americans (that would mean, for example, declaring war on radical Islam without declaring war on all Muslims);
- 8) he will demonstrate that he will ultimately help our nation as a whole (for example, with good economic policies or by proposing something better than Obamacare);
- 9) he will learn to act presidential (rather than vengeful and impetuous) on both a national and international level.

For our nation, earnestly pray and believe:

- The greatest evangelistic sweep that's ever happened in this country is happening now, and more people will be brought into the kingdom of God than ever before
- Lost and hurting people all over the nation and world will hear and respond to the call of the Lord when He says, "Come to Me. I will give you rest, peace and life."
- The United States will reverse Roe Versus Wade
- There will be a reversal of so many things that have gone wrong that the Church has let go
- There will be a complete change (for righteousness) in the Church, Washington, D.C. and America
- The awakening to God in this nation and our rebirth is now underway.

For Donald Trump, earnestly pray and believe he:

- Will surround himself with the right advisors and counselors
- Will have the right strategy, tactics and people to implement
- Will have favor in D.C. to be able to make needed reforms that have deep-seated resistance to change
- Will be strengthened spirit, soul and body
- Will have the wisdom of God for all circumstances
- Will have physical, mental and spiritual strength
- Will have the insights and concepts he needs for political business and his personal life.
- Will have the insight of where he needs to be in his own prayer life and in his commitment to God
- And his family would be drawn to God and held close to Him. God will send people on assignment from Him to speak into their political and personal lives

Take your authority over evil spirits that have set themselves up in Washington, D.C. and against Donald Trump as president of the United States by:

- Pleading the blood of Jesus over Donald Trump, all government officials and this nation
- Praying against the attacks from evil spirits in heavenly places (principalities, powers and rulers of this dark world) that will attempt to assault Donald Trump and his purpose
- Commanding Satan to cancel any assignments he has against Donald Trump because he belongs to God
- Declaring that no wicked spirit shall thwart Mr. Trump from accomplishing that which he has been called to do

In short, if Trump indeed is president by divine intervention, we should pray for divine restraint on his life as well, lest this divine wrecking ball wreak havoc on the nation while tearing down what is wrong. May he be a divinely guided wrecking ball!
